DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 8-13, 16, 17-20, 23, 24, 26, 27, 30-31, 33-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Number 6,940,826.

Re Claims 1, 8, 12, 19, 26, fig. 3a teaches a conferencing bridge, whereby first PS 38 receives data from first party transmits it to the Mixing block 34 (a multiplexing device); a second PS 38 receives data from a second party and into to associated JB 40 (a first jitter buffer), whereby the processed data is output to the 34; a third PS 38 receives data from a third party and into associated JB 40 (a second jitter buffer), whereby the processed data is also output to 34, wherein the data received from the first data is not received into the first or the second jitter buffer (See col. 2, lines 21 +).

Re Claims 2, 9, 10, 13, 20, 27, the data is received is VOIP packet.

Re Claims 5, 11, 16, 23, 30, refer to Claim 1.

Re Claims 6, 17, 24, 31, 37, 38, refer to Claim 1, wherein conferencing supports a three way phone call.

Art Unit: 2616

Re Claims 33, 34, 35, 36, refer to Claim 1, wherein 34, includes 36 for outputting of plurality of devices.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 7, 18, 25, 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent Number 6,940,826 in view of U.S. Patent Number 6,671,262.

Re Claims 7, 18, 25, 32, '826 patent fails to explicitly teach the call-waiting feature. However, '262 patent teaching adding call-waiting feature in a VOIP conferencing bridge. One skilled in the art would have been motivated to combine the references for enhance servicing. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one ordinary skilled to combine the references.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 8-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Re claim 8 recites an apparatus but the body of the claim recite logic and lack structure.

Claim Objections

7. Claim 12 is objected to because of the following informalities:

"memory" should be computer readable medium. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

8. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

9. Claims 8-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Logic not stored in computer readable medium and device execute the logic is non-statutory.

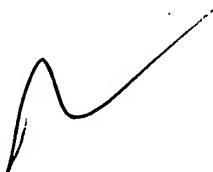

10. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Andrew Lee whose telephone number is 571-272-3130. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday to Friday from 8:30AM to 6:00PM.
